

Discover the fun way to teach reading and writing in English!

The Course Content

These comprehensive courses provide an introduction to Jolly Phonics, the UK's leading literacy programme. Taking place over 2 days, the courses have been designed to show how Jolly Phonics progresses with grammar, spelling and punctuation in school.

The first training day focuses on the initial reading and writing teaching with synthetic phonics, while the second day explains how to extend the teaching with multi-sensory grammar, spelling and punctuation lessons.

- Discover the 5 key skills of Jolly Phonics: letter sounds, letter formation, blending for reading, segmenting for writing and tricky words
- Find out about teaching key grammar concepts such as nouns, verbs and parsing
- Improve spelling and teaching of new spelling patterns
- Using punctuation to write clearly and expressively
- Expanding vocabulary for writing
- Gain lots of practical ideas and advice that you can take to the classroom

Jolly Phonics Trainer Coral George

Coral qualified as a teacher in Britain, starting her career in England followed by some time in Egypt, before joining the Spanish Ministry of Education/British Council/Bilingual Project in 1998. While teaching infants, Coral used Jolly Phonics and was amazed at the children's interest and progress, and the high standards of literacy she achieved. She subsequently founded 'Jolly Centres' in Spain, where children, parents and teachers now enjoy her lively training. Coral also collaborates with various Universities. As a Jolly Ambassador, she works closely with Education Inspectors and Local Authorities. She currently works with her team of trainers to deliver synthetic phonics training all over the world.
